

Belle Starr, The Bandit Queen

STAGE 10 BAY 5

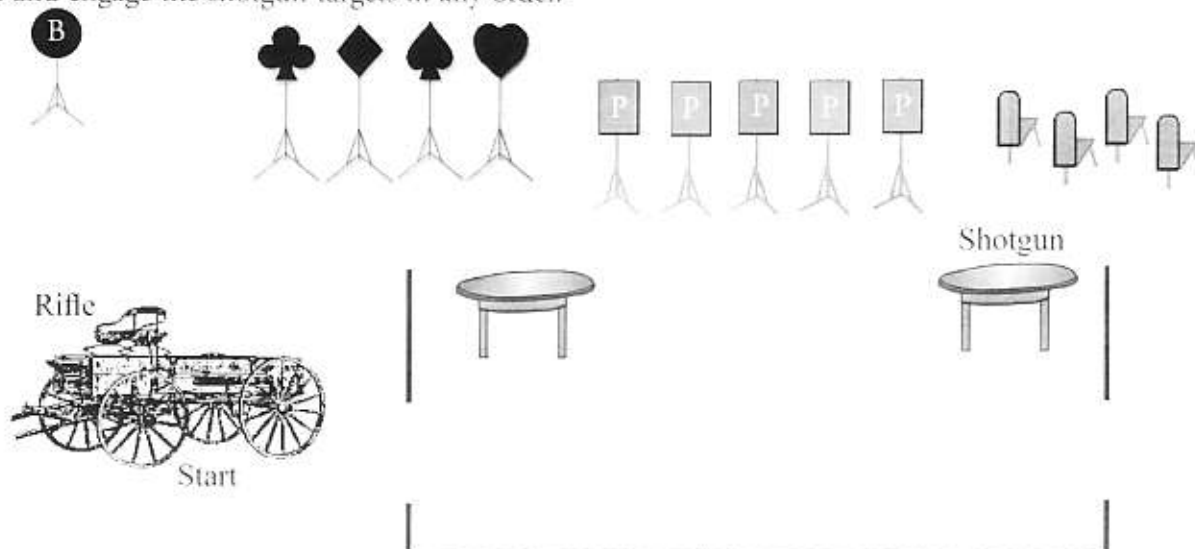

TWO REVOLVERS AND 10 CARTRIDGES, RIFLE AND 10 CARTRIDGES, SHOTGUN AND 4 + SHELLS

Myra Maybelle Shirley (known as May to her family), aka Belle Starr, was raised in Missouri and Scyene, Texas. She knew the James Brothers and the Younger Brothers because she had grown up with them in Missouri. Belle had a strong sense of style and used to ride side-saddle with two pistols in her cartridge belts. She was a crack shot. She was married to Jim Reed, who became involved in outlaw gangs at the end of the Civil War, and was later charged with stage coach robbery. It was rumoured she was married a short time to Bruce Younger. She married Sam Starr, a Cherokee Indian, and after Sam's death was known to have spent time with Jack Spaniard, Jim French and Blue Duck. These relationships kept her involved in crime. She was ambushed and killed on February 3, 1889.

Starting Position: Start standing at the front of the wagon with hands on the side not touching your rifle.

Staging: Two pistols loaded with five rounds each and holstered. Rifle loaded with 9 rounds and staged on the wagon seat. Shotgun is staged on the right table with at least 4 rounds on your person.

Procedure: Say "THE BANDIT QUEEN" and wait for the beep. At the beep pick up your rifle and engage the rifle targets in a double tap sweep from the left. With your ninth round engage the bonus target for a 5 second bonus. A miss on the bonus will not count, but it must be engaged or it will be counted as a procedural. Return open and empty rifle to the wagon seat. Move inside the building to the left table. Draw your pistols as required and engage the pistol targets starting on the left in a double tap sweep. Holster. Move to your shotgun and engage the shotgun targets in any order.
